CAUTION.
Candidates are requested to be very careful and see that the name is on every certificate cast today. Frequently in the excitement of the close certificates are cast with no names signed. Attention to this will prevent any trouble or misunderstanding.

To Candidates.
So many questions are being asked as to the manner of closing the contest that the Herald desires to thoroughly explain the matter at this time. The issue of the Herald of this evening contains the standing of all the candidates up until 5:30 o'clock Friday evening, Dec. 20th. No further statement will be given until the judges announce their decision. That everything may be open and above board at the close, the Herald would request that the candidates this evening, before nine o'clock, place their uncast certificates together with subscription books and money for all unpaid subscriptions in sealed packages and present packages to a representative of the Herald at the final polling place, these not to be opened until the polls close at nine o'clock and in the presence of the judges who will make the final canvass and award the trophies. This gives all an equal chance and it is believed will meet with the approval of all.

Only five hours more!
Precisely at nine o'clock this evening at the Herald office, the polls in Herald popular voting contest will close and as soon afterwards as possible the votes and records will be turned over to the committee of judges who will make the final canvass and award the trophies.

The judges are: Jas. Hughes, Ed.

Lynch, and Dr. McGaughey.
The candidates and their friends have been working incessantly today and the most intense excitement prevails. Wires have been pulled and fine political deals consummated, but the final count alone will determine who will carry away the beautiful trophies.

Votes may be cast at the Herald office and subscriptions will be received there up to nine o'clock this evening.
Mrs. Green and Ed. Hoffman were the best supported candidates yesterday and carried off the honor certificates. No changes were effected in the lists and the two candidates just mentioned drew quite a distance in advance of their opponents. Mrs. Green and Ed. Hoffman won the 500 votes for the week. A total of 5271 votes was cast yesterday.

The standing given in this evening's issue shows the result of all the voting up until 5:30 o'clock last evening and is the last that will be made public until that of the final decision is given by the judges.
May the most deserving candidates carry away the honors and the trophies is the wish of the Herald.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

MEMBERS OF THE PARTY FROM PUTNAM COUNTY MEET IN MASS TO NAME DATE OF PRIMARY FOR NOMINATION OF COUNTY OFFICERS.

LARGE, ENTHUSIASTIC CROWD

Unanimity of Thought on All Subjects Before the Convention Was the Feature of the Day.

The Democrats of Putnam county met in mass convention at 10:30 this morning to designate a time for holding the primary for the nominating of county officers, and for other business. Long before that hour the lobby of the court house was crowded with Democrats from all parts of the county. Promptly at 10:30 the assembly room filled ready for business. In the absence of County Committeeman Cooper the secretary of the county committee, James P. Hughes, called the meeting to order. Col. C. C. Matson was placed in nomination for permanent chairman and unanimously elected.

In taking the chair Col. Matson stated that he was not well and could make no extended speech. He declared that he had but one ambition, and that was to serve the party. On second thought he had one other, more personal and nearer his heart, that was to see William J. Bryan president of the United States. Col. Matson believed that now that Roosevelt was out of the way Bryan would be the almost unanimous choice of the American people, for Roosevelt's popularity was due to his adoption of democratic principles. He urged all Democrats to attend the primaries that their choice might represent the county, not the choice of a few.

He then called for nomination for secretary of the convention and F. C. Tilden, of the Greencastle Star-Democrat, was unanimously chosen, with Mr. Akers, of the Cloverdale Graphic, and Mr. Ware, of the Roachdale News, assistants.

The first business of the meeting was the call for report from the township elections of delegates, conventions held December 14. It was found that several precincts of several townships had not elected, and secretary Hughes assigned places of meeting for each township that the roll of delegates might be completed.

The main business of the meeting was then taken up. On motion Friday, January 10, was fixed as the date of the primary for the nomination of candidates for the county offices. The convention then took a recess till 1 o'clock in the afternoon. The afternoon session was called to order by Chairman Matson at 1 o'clock. The reports of the townships on the delegates elected to the state and district conventions were reported and the report adopted.

Frank M. Lyon, on behalf of many of the candidates offered the following resolution:

Resolved: that it is the sense of the Democratic party of Putnam county that no money shall be used for the purpose of purchasing votes or other illegal purpose at the primary election to be held January 10, 1908.

This resolution was unanimously adopted.

Capt. Martin moved that the judges of the primary election be instructed to refuse to allow any Republican to vote for any candidate unless he pledges himself to support the entire ticket in the election. This was carried.

Capt. Wimmer then called for Cornelius Airhart, who addressed the convention. He stated that he believed there was greater unanimity in the national Democratic party than at any time since the war. He declared we would see Bryan president. Roosevelt will not run again because he sees the handwriting on the wall, he is not enough of a Democrat to satisfy the people. There being no further business the convention adjourned till January 11, when it will meet to ratify the nominations of the 10th.

The delegates reported by the townships to represent them at the State and District Conventions were as follows:

Jackson Township—State, C. Airhart; Alt., J. W. Stewart. Dist., C. Airhart; Alt., Heaney.

"NOT GUILTY" THE VERDICT

ADD MULLINIX AND WILLIAM FISHER FOUND NOT GUILTY OF THE CHARGE OF MURDERING AN UNKNOWN MAN AT REELSVILLE—JURY WAS OUT ALL NIGHT.

GOOD ADVICE BY MR. ALLEE

Attorney, after the Verdict Is Read, Tells the Acquitted Men Never to Touch a Drop of Liquor Again—Crowd Heard the Reading of the Verdict.

"We the jury find Add Mullinix not guilty." "We, the jury find William Fisher not guilty." These were the words read by Judge Rawley this morning in the court room at 10:00 o'clock which decided the fate of William Fisher and Add Mullinix who were tried on the charge of murdering an unknown man near Reelsville last fall.

The jury in the case brought in the verdict at 10:00 o'clock Saturday morning, having been out since late Friday afternoon.

A large crowd had gathered in the court room to hear the verdict. The court room was as quiet as a church when the foreman handed the verdict to the bailiff, who handed it to Judge Rawley.

The prisoners sat beside their attorney, John Allee. They both were pale and noticeably nervous. As the judge read the verdict their faces brightened up. Both reached out to grasp the hand of Mr. Allee. "The jury was right," said Mr. Fisher, to a Herald reporter; "We never saw the man after he left the town."

Then Mr. Allee as he grasped the hands of the vindicated men, said: "My advice to you boys is never to touch another drop of liquor. Never do it I say. If you do, and I find it out, you need never apply to me again for help. Never again, if you take another drink. Liquor got you into this trouble and will get you in some more if you follow the course you did before. Remember my warning, boys, and go home and behave yourselves."

Both men swore that they would hear to the advice of the attorney. Then they arose and left the court room free men.

The evidence against the men was purely circumstantial.

Sunday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, a memorial will be held in the Methodist church at North Manchester. E. E. Stacy, state secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and other state leaders. He died at Kobe, where he had charge of Y. M. C. A. work and directed the work in Japan. For years he was at the head of the state college Y. M. C. A. work and was prominent in the state organization. It was decided today that the main exercises in Indiana will be at his home, original preparations being to have the exercises in Marion. Mrs. Helm was escorted to America by Mr. Hibbard, secretary at Tokio, and his wife. Japanese Y. M. C. A. locals have held memorial services in his honor.

ATTORNEY HAYS WINS SUIT

Big Four Must Pay Mrs. Thomas Bryan $10,000 for Injuries Received Several Years Ago—Mrs. Bryan Formerly Was Miss Vivian Hadley, Daughter of Ex-State Treasurer Hadley.

CASE TRIED IN PUTMAN COURT

Attorney S. A. Hays received a notice from the Supreme Court this morning notifying him that the verdict for Vivian Hadley against the Big Four railroad for $10,000 damages had been affirmed. Miss Hadley was injured by having a car window fall upon her arm. The case was tried in this court about two years ago and the girl was awarded $10,000 damages. The railroad appealed the case to the higher court. Mr. Hays was attorney for the young lady.

Miss Hadley is the daughter of ex-State Treasurer Hadley. She only a few months ago became the wife of a young man well known in this county. He is Thomas Bryan who now is practicing medicine in Ulin, Ills. Dr. Bryan attended High School and the University here and is a nephew of Thomas Farmer.

ASK FOR WRIT OF MANDATE

Charles W. Bachelder Brings Suit against Arthur L. Evens, Trustee of Warren Township, to Compel School Wagon to Stop at the House.

A writ of writ of mandate to compel Trustee Arthur L. Evens of Warren township to stop the wagon used in transporting school children to and from the Putnamville school at his house instead of some sixty rods away. Mr. Bachelder alleges that the wagon now passes some sixty rods from the house and that the children are expected to meet it there and to leave it at that point when returning at night. He declares that this is a hardship, and injurious to the children. He alleges further that Trustee Evens will not allow the wagon to make the trip to the house, and he prays the court to issue an order compelling the trustee to order the driver to do so. It is an interesting case and will have far reaching effects.

THAT PACIFIC CRUISE.

The great fleet of the United States navy started for its long trip round South America to San Francisco. It is, with the single exception of the cruise of the ill fated Russian fleet, the longest trip of a modern fleet. It has been severely criticised, as tending to excite a feeling of unrest in Japan, and for leaving our Atlantic coast unprotected. Many eastern papers have been very radical in their criticism. The cruise, however, is valuable. If we are to have a navy we should have an effective navy. We are practically sure that that graft has been busy even with the equipment of our fighting ships. Ugly rumors of shoddy inspection of gun metal and machinery are afloat. If this is true, the flaws should be corrected as soon as possible. The long strain of the tremendous journey will demonstrate the truth as to machinery. It will give experience to engineering corps, to officers and enlisted men. It will be the basis for the study of the needs of the navy of the future. There is no party politics, or at least ought not to be, in the management of the army and navy. Both parties, we take it, out side the grafters, are interested in the well-being of the country. It is idle, as yet to hope for universal peace. Europe is too jealous and too grasping, the new world to ambitious and too volatile, China and Japan in the east too Oriental and too uncertain. Under these conditions a navy of the highest efficiency is essential, and such cruisers are necessary to such efficiency.

THAT BRIDGE CASE.

We note that there is an attempt to make political capital out of the recent finding of the appellate court in the Cook Ditch case. The charge is made that the attorneys for the county have blundered in the matter. This is possibly true, but if they did, it was upon the advice of some of the best lawyers and judges in this part of Indiana. Judge Collier, Judge West and Judge White all held that it was proper, since the ditch was in Putnam, and the damage done here that the suit should be brought here. Several attorneys, Republican as well as Democrats, gave time to the question, and advised that the case be brought here. The counsel for the defense had no idea that there was any error. They never contested it on that ground.

They did not hint at it in their brief. No one discovered it till the case was before the appellate court. It looks very much like an attempt to satisfy Morgan county without passing upon the points at issue. The county's attorneys can not be blamed. It was not possible to foresee such a decision.

Adventures of a Stained Glass Window

The east window at St. Margaret's, Westminster, wandered about for more than 200 years before reaching its present position and was the subject of a seven years' lawsuit. Henry VII, for whom it was intended, died before the window arrived from Dordrecht, and it came into the possession first of the abbot of Waltham and then of General Monk. Stained glass was anathema in Puritan days, so the window was buried until the restoration, when it was brought to light. Refused by Wadham college, it was bought for 50 guineas and erected in a private house and years later was bought for 400 guineas by the committee charged with the restoration of St. Margaret's and placed in position in the church. The lawsuit to which we have referred was brought by the registrar to the dean and chapter on the ground that the window contained superstitious images, but after seven years' legal wrangling the church wardens proved victorious, and the beautiful window was suffered to remain undisturbed.—London Quiver.

Strictly Business.

"Young man," said the old gentleman as he shuffled into the parlor, "I believe—in fact, I know—that you and my daughter are rapidly edging toward matrimony."

"It is true, sir," replied the poor but otherwise honest youth. "And, while I am obliged to confess that it will have to be a case of love in a cottage, still I—"

"That's all right, young man," interrupted the stern parent. "Love in a cottage is the true ideal of happiness. You have my consent!"

"Oh, thank you, sir," exclaimed the young man.

"Upon one condition," continued the old gentleman, "and that is you must be able to show me the deed for the cottage. Good night, young man."—Chicago News.

FRUIT SHOW AT PURDUE

Great interest is being shown by the fruit growers of the state in the announcement that the State Horticultural Society is offering $300 in cash for premiums for the First Show to be held at Purdue University, during the week of the Farmers' Short Course, Jan. 13-18, 1908. This money is being offered because the Indiana Horticultural Society feels that the resources of Indiana as a fruit state, and the possibilities for making money in commercial fruit growing are not understood as they should be by the farmers of the state.

This exhibition will be of especial value to fruit growers from the educational standpoint because of the opportunity afforded by the Short Course in Fruit Growing for getting practical information concerning varieties, methods of orchard management, insects, spraying and spray mixtures. The fruit business of Indiana is still in its infancy. Every fruit grower should plan to attend the Short Course and make an exhibit. The contest is open to every farmer in the state. For premium list and further information, write to C. G. Woodbury, Purdue Experimental Station, Lafayette Indiana.

CONVENTION NOTES.

Capt. Martin of Cloverdale was, as usual, in a front seat. Captain is one of the Putnam county Democratic War Horses.

Many of the candidates were in town early this morning, some of them staying in town over night, so that they would be here early and miss nothing that would aid them in their race.

The several candidates were busy this morning. The lower lobby of the court house was their holdout and each was busy shaking hands and endeavoring to win votes for themselves.

Several old faces were among those in the convention hall this morning. These were the faces of the old time Democrats who by their years of untiring work in advocating true Democratic principles have kept old Putnam on the right side of the political ledger.

Try some of that home made mincemeat at Broadstreet's grocery. It is clean and so good.

TERRELL SEEKS DIVORCE

Former DePauw Man, Well Known Here, Asks Divorce in Seattle from Wife Married in 1898.

Maverick Terrell yesterday afternoon filed his belated complaint for divorce from Mabel Pitzer Terrell, whom he married June 2, 1898.

Terrell alleges that his wife is of an extremely jealous temperament, that she upbraided him whenever he spoke to a woman on the street in her presence and that otherwise she rendered his domestic condition intolerable.

Last week Mrs. Terrell filed in the superior court her answer to the charges of her husband. She denied his principal allegations and stated that he had deserted her and had sought bachelor quarters on a houseboat in Lake Washington. Terrell says he is living with two brothers on the houseboat. He says he has paid his wife $100 a month for the support of their two children. It is asserted that he has $30,000, which he inherited, and that their is no community property.—Seattle Times.

At Broadstreet's grocery you will find the very best of the following: clustered raisens, candied cherries, candied pineapple, washed figs, shipped dates, seeded raisins, currents and everything that is new, fresh, clean and good to eat.
